ABOUT ME

I am a Soul Level Animal Communicator®, an Energy Practitioner for humans and their animals, and a Companion Animal End-of-Life Doula.

I am here to support you and your animal family on your journey together in life and beyond. Because the love we share with our animals is forever.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Part 1: Select True (T) or False (F) for each question.

#	Question	True	False
1	In intuitive animal communication, messages are conveyed telepathically between humans and animals, bypassing physical senses like hearing vocalizations or observing body language.
2	Intuitive animal communication is not a new concept but the number of professional animal communicators has increased significantly in the last 50 years.
3	Intuitive animal communicators go by many names, including pet psychic, intuitive interspecies communicator, pet whisperer, and pet medium, among others.
4	The intuitive animal communication field does not yet have a national organization and certification process like pet groomers and pet sitters.
5	Professional Intuitive animal communicators are predominantly female and come from a diversity of professions, including business, education, counseling, and veterinary medicine; they have trained and practiced to develop their skills and many follow a code of ethics.
6	In Soul Level Animal Communication [®] the animal is asked questions to determine the soul lesson they are teaching you and how you can work with them to learn the lesson.
7	Intuitive animal communicators use different methods for connecting with animals; some may request pictures of the animal, and others do not.
8	Intuitive animal communication is possible with domesticated and wild animals, including animals we consider 'pests'.
9	Intuitive animal communication can be practiced with animals who are in a physical body and those who have died.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Part 2: Select True (T) or False (F) for each question.

#	Question	True	False
10	Intuitive animal communicators can connect with individual animals and also the collective consciousness of a species.
11	Physical distance between the animal and the communicator does not reduce the effectiveness of intuitive animal communication.
12	Intuitive animal communication is a two-way process.
13	Intuitive animal communication sessions can be conducted live with you in person or by phone or Zoom or via email where you send your questions to the communicator, and they reply with the animal's responses.
14	Some communicators recommend clients wait for a period of time (often 1 week to 1 month) before scheduling a session to communicate with a deceased pet.
15	intuitive animal communication sessions typically last 15 to 60 minutes and range in price from $40 to several hundred dollars.
16	Your animal does not need to be present with you during an intuitive animal communication session.
17	It is not necessary to prepare your pet for an intuitive animal communication session but it is helpful for you to prepare yourself.
18	Intuitive information is sent to and received from the animal in the form of pictures/movies, thoughts/words, emotions, physical sensations, tastes, and smells.
19	The information received in intuitive animal communication can be literal or symbolic/metaphorical; sometime the information may not make sense immediately.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Part 3: Select True (T) or False (F) for each question.

#	Question	True	False
20	It is possible to confirm or validate the information received during intuitive animal communication
21	Intuitive animal communicators share information they receive with the human client; the client's role is to determine whether the information makes sense to them and whether and how to apply the information.
22	Intuitive animal communication cannot accurately diagnose physical ailments and is not an alternative to veterinary care.
23	Intuitive animal communicators do not predict the future.
24	Intuitive animal communication can help resolve behavioral issues and conflicts between animals and between humans and animals; however, humans and animals have free will so a resolution is not guaranteed.
25	When working with an intuitive animal communicator, it may require more than one session to address specific issues between you and your pet.
26	All intuitive animal communicators do not communicate with lost pets or offer techniques like map dowsing to help identify the location of the pet.
27	When two intuitive animal communicators receive different information from your pet it does not necessarily mean that one of them is wrong.
28	An animal's personality comes through in an intuitive animal communication session.
29	Intuitive animal communicators can ask animals any type of question, such as about their life before you adopted them, but the animal decides whether to answer and what information to provide.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Part 4: Select True (T) or False (F) for each question.

#	Question	True	False
30	Everyone is able to communicate intuitively with animals; you are probably already receiving information from your pet but may not be consciously aware of this.
31	Learning intuitive animal communication is a personal growth experience and will deepen your relationship with your pet and all animals as you understand their unique personalities, needs, feelings, goals, and purposes.
32	Although intuitive information can seem like it is your imagination, it is not; professional animal communicators learn to distinguish their imagination from the information they receive from the animal.
33	Animal communication can be learned from books, movies, online classes, in-person events, and from the animals themselves.
34	Human thoughts, emotions, beliefs, and skepticism can influence the outcome of intuitive animal communication.
35	Intuitive animal communication does not replace training for domestic pets but it can provide helpful information to assist in the training process.

1 In intuitive animal communication, messages are conveyed telepathically between humans and animals, bypassing physical senses like hearing vocalizations or observing body language.

T

TRUE. While interpreting vocalizations and body language is a part of understanding animals, intuitive animal communication goes beyond these physical cues.

Intuitive animal communication is a practice that involves establishing a telepathic connection with animals, allowing for the direct exchange of thoughts, feelings, images, and other information beyond the limitations of verbal language and our five senses. It is a way to bridge the communication gap between humans and animals, tapping into our innate ability to connect with other sentient beings on a deeper level.

It involves quieting the mind, entering a meditative state, and establishing a heart-centered connection with the animal. Through this connection, information is exchanged energetically. It is a language of the heart and soul.

Intuitive animal communication allows humans to understand an animal's needs, emotions, and thoughts and can facilitate a stronger bond and mutual understanding between humans and animals.

2 Intuitive animal communication is not a new concept, but the number of professional animal communicators has increased significantly in the last 50 years.

T

TRUE. While its recognition in modern society might be relatively recent, the concept of intuitive animal communication is ancient. Many indigenous cultures around the world have long practiced intuitive communication with animals (and also plants and the elements) as part of their spiritual and cultural beliefs.

However, since the 1970s, the number of professional animal communicators has increased significantly.

MJ Barrett and colleagues reported the results of an environmental scan of animal communicator websites at the 2022 International Multispecies Methods Research Symposium: Shifting Paradigms in Human-Animal Relations. They found animal communicators with English-language websites on all continents except Antarctica, with the largest number found in the US, UK, Canada, and Australia. Many of them have been in practice for 10 to 30 years and some for 40-58 years.

One of the early professional animal communicators, Penelope Smith, has written several books, trained numerous students, and created a code of ethics for the profession.
